

Duffield Good Neighbours Week

8th – 15th May 2022

Sunday 8th

6:30pm: 'The Royal Law' service at St Alkmund's Church.

Tuesday 10th

9:40am for 10am start Walk Derbyshire – Meet at the Weston Centre. Two guided walks will take place, of about 2 miles and 3 miles, around the streets and/or fields of Duffield depending on the conditions under foot. No charge. Tea and coffee available afterwards at the Weston Centre.

2:00pm: 'Life and Current Affairs on the BBC Radio 4 Today programme' by Mr Peter Gallimore retired Editor - St Alkmund's Church Hall. (Contact Claire on....)

Wednesday 11th

12:00pm Soup & Pud at St Margaret Clitherow's Church, Hall Farm Road. Last orders 1:30pm. Numbers are limited so please book on or after 30th April, with Julia Dodd on 01332 840863.

2:00am: Talk on 'Quirky Derbyshire' at The Weston Centre. David Fearnough is a retired headteacher and author of his book Derbyshire Extremes. He moved to Duffield six years ago and now writes articles on all things Derbyshire, for the Chesterfield based Reflections magazine. His talk, Quirky Derbyshire, including many of his own photographs, looks at many of the unusual and sometimes bizarre aspects of Derbyshire. Tea and Coffee will be available (Contact Anthony on 07931819713).

Thursday 12th

12:00pm - 1:30pm: Community Lunch at the Emmanuel Community Church.

Friday 13th

11:30am - 12:30pm: Introduction to Chairiobics. A gentle chair based, physiotherapy led exercise session, suitable for all abilities, focussing on strength, mobility and balance to help with falls prevention. A great way to make friends, have fun and get fit. This will include a free trial session for those interested. (Contact Suzanne on 07810 023743).

1:30pm - 3:30pm: Art group – Drawing/sketching taster session at The Weston Centre (Contact Jeff on 01332 585426)

1:30pm - 2:30pm: Music and Poetry by pupils at Duffield Meadows School. Tea, coffee cakes and biscuits provided.

Saturday 14th

10:00am - 12:00pm: Coffee Mornings Trinity Methodist and Baptist Churches.

2:00pm - 4:00pm: Want to reduce plastic pollution? Then join Plastic Free Duffield for cake and tea at the Methodist Church, King Street for lots of ideas to REDUCE our use of Single Use Plastic. Refills on the Road, the Plastic Free Veggie & Earthed Up gardening stalls will be present.

7:30pm: Music at Duffield (at St. Alkmund's Church) is offering up to 50 tickets at discounted price £12 for Bemrose Bursary Piano Recital by Nurry Lee. Tickets available at the Duffield Good Neighbours service in Saint Alkmund's Church at 6:30pm on May 8th, at the concert or from Marion Taulbut (07717 350225).

Sunday 15th

09:30am – 1pm: Come and watch Duffield Dynamos youngsters football training. Under 13 age group matches to follow. - Eyes Meadow - Refreshments available.

3:00pm: Duffield Heritage Walk with Robert Reid. Meet at the Bridge Inn and proceed to Georgian Duffield via St. Alkmund's Church and Duffield Hall. Lots to see en route returning via King's Head and Eyes meadow.

Friday 20th

10:30 – 11:30am: The children of William Gilbert Endowed Primary School invite you for refreshments, and to listen to their Spoken English and musical performances.

Coffee available at the Weston Centre every Tuesday - Friday 10:00am - 12:00pm
Donations will be welcome at all these free events

Organised by Duffield Good Neighbours Project –Chairman Mr. Richard Knibbs (tel. 07859 235081)
Supported by Duffield Parish Council, The Weston Centre,
Appletree Medical Practice and Duffield Community Association

